That Capt. Robert Dollar of the famous Dollar Line of steamships is now making a thorough analysis of transpacific trade conditions in order to report to the American International Corporation whether in his opinion it would be feasible or profitable for the concern to enter transpacific service with its ships, is stated by C. A. Stone, president of the $50,000,000 corporation, in interviews appearing in New York newspapers a short time ago.

Stone came from Boston, where he was a member of the firm of Stone & Webster, to accept the presidency. The corporation's books closed late in January with 1800 shareholders listed. Half of the stock was taken by stockholders of the great National City Bank of New York, whose president, Frank A. Vanderlip, conceived the project of organizing a corporation to expand foreign trade.

"We propose to keep the ships under the American flag, and, because of appeals from a great number of persons and organizations on the Pacific coast, we will retain all but one of them in the coast service between Pacific ports in this country and Central America."

"We have other plans for development of shipping. It is possible that

LOAN FUND JOBS RUNNING BEYOND CASH SET ASIDE

Cost of Pumping Plant and Sewer Lines Exceeding Estimates
By Many Thousands

That the expenditures for the proposed new sewer pumping plant and the attendant sewer lines that are to be installed by the loan fund commission are mounting up higher by thousands of dollars than the original estimates was brought out by Charles R. Forbes, chairman, in the loan fund meeting this afternoon.

Forbes cited the Puuuli sewer extension, which has gained by $6000 over the original estimate, and the Kakaako pumping plant, which has reached more than $15,200 with more still to be added.

"I do not believe any municipality can build as cheaply as it can hire work done by contract," Forbes declared. "The federal government has not found it so, and I doubt if a city government will."

He pointed out that the money left will prove insufficient when the commission begins to carry out its other plans, and suggested that a statement be furnished by the sewer department showing why the jobs are exceeding their original estimates to such an extent. The matter was still being discussed at a late hour this afternoon.

Lord-Young Engineering Company were granted an extension of time of 15 days for the completion of the Puuuli sewer project, their work having been delayed by the recent inclement weather.

Specifications were read for suction and discharge cast iron pipe for the Kakaako sewer plant, but were not approved in the early part of the meeting.

The case of William Clifford, charged with assisting in a robbery and having cocaine in possession, went to trial in federal court today. Further trial will be had at 8:30 o'clock tomorrow morning.

[Associated Press by Federal Wireless]
PARIS, France, Feb. 3.—Yusuf Izzedin, heir apparent to the Turkish throne and nephew of the reigning sultan, did not commit suicide, as he has been reported as doing, but was assassinated, declares Cherif Pasha, director of the movement of opposition to the Turkish government. Cherif Pasha told a reporter for the Paris Matin that Yusuf Izzedin was assassinated by order of the Turkish Committee on Union and Progress. Yusuf is said to have revolted against the Young Turk party and it was feared by them that he would succeed in making himself dictator.

(Special Cable to Nippon Jiji)
TOKIO, Feb. 3.—Yuan Shih-Kai's troops stationed at Wuchang, in the province of Hupeh, are on the verge of an uprising, according to an authentic report which reached here today. This is the strongest post now held by Yuan Shih-Kai in this section of China, and should the soldiers in Wuchang revolt, it means the complete overthrow of the Yuan power in Hupeh. At the present time this province is supposed to be one of the provinces that would still cling to the monarchy, but with Hupeh in control of the revolutionists the entire section south of the Yangtze-kiang river will be controlled by the revolutionary party.

L. L. MCANDLESS TO FIGHT HOTEL ST. IMPROVEMENT

His Legal Representatives Will Oppose Project at Meeting
Tonight

SUPERVISORS TO TALK OVER FRONTAGE TAXING

No Objections to King Street
Extension Expected at Board Hearing

Legal representatives of L. L. McCandless will oppose the frontage tax improvement project for Hotel street from Nuuanu to River, which comes before the board of supervisors tonight in the form of a public hearing. Though Mr. McCandless says that he does not know of any other property-holders on the street who will bring in protests tonight, the feeling is expressed at the city hall today that enough opposition may develop at the hearing to hold up the entire project.

McCandless may not appear at the meeting, he is said today to the Star-Bulletin, but his representatives there know his feelings in regard to the proposed improvement. "I contend that the city should build the street of its own accord," said McCandless in explanation of his stand on the matter. "Our taxes are high enough now without bringing in a frontage tax."

"We have paid taxes for years on Hotel street, and figures go to show that the total in a five-year period would build an entirely new street if once applied that way. It is not fair to ask property holders to make the additional payment."

Mr. McCandless says that the argument relative to increased value of property by street improvement is of little avail. If it goes up in value taxes will go along with it, he says, and every property owner already finds himself overburdened with taxes.

"After all it's the city that gets the good of these taxes," explains McCandless, "so the city supervisors should be glad to put in good streets of their own accord if the work is going to benefit the property."

King street extension is also due for a hearing tonight, but it is not believed that any opposition to this project will arise.

City Engineer Collins will report on the proposition of narrowing the proposed Beretania pavement by drawing in the curbs nearer the center. The engineer said today that he will recommend that the curbs be left as they now are.

Data is being gathered for a report from the engineer's office in regard to widening Hotel street at its junction with Fort street. This is the third time this question has been brought up for the consideration of the supervisors.

LONDON PAPERS DEMAND ACTION

[Associated Press by Federal Wireless]

NEW BREWERY HEADS MAY ATTEND FIRST MEETING THIS WEEK

Some time this week, or probably early next week, the new officers and directors of the Honolulu Brewing and Malting Company will hold their initial meeting to discuss proposed new projects for 1916 and, perhaps, new policies. St. C. Sayres, secretary and manager, reported today.

Mr. Sayres says that, as far as he knows, the present policy, which makes for a clean business administration and which has been in effect since the ousting of C. G. Bartlett, erstwhile president and manager, doubtless will remain in effect, and that probably no new policies will be suggested.

BIGGEST INCOME IN HAWAII RUNS ABOVE $150,000

Haley's Report Shows 799 Persons in Territory Who Paid
Federal Tax Last Year

SIXTY-FOUR RESIDENTS GET MORE THAN $20,000

Hawaii Ranks Forty-first in List of States and Territories in Bulk Returns

Who is the wealthiest man (or woman) in the way of income in Hawaii? Official figures contained in the annual report of the Internal Revenue Department just made public show that there is only one individual in this territory who has an annual net income of more than $150,000. The only person in Hawaii who knows the identity of that person is Collector of Internal Revenue J. F. Haley, and he won't tell.

The report shows that 799 persons paid an individual income tax here during 1915. Their net incomes ranged from $3000 up to $150,000 for that "off year," as it was called. Those whose income ranged between $3000 and $4000 totaled 245, while 145 persons showed net earnings of between $4000 and $5000 each. Those whose earnings were between $5000 and $10,000 for the year numbered 233, while residents who cleared between $10,000 and $15,000 for the year numbered 79.

The surtax begins at $20,000 and those whose incomes ranged from this figure to $25,000 numbered 16. Twelve persons had incomes ranging from $25,000 to $30,000, while 15 had incomes from this figure up to $40,000. Ten ranged between $40,000 and $50,000, while seven had a net saving of between $50,000 and $75,000.

There are three persons in the territory who had net little nest eggs ranging from $75,000 to $100,000 each for the year's work, when business closed for them last year.

Then comes the one whose net income for the year amounted to more than $150,000. It is the identity of this one that certain curious ones in Hawaii would like to know, and chances are they will not find out, for those who do know would not dare to tell.

Of the 48 states, two territories and one district in the Union, Hawaii ranks 41st in the list as to the total number of returns filed. New York has 83,405; Pennsylvania, 33,789; Illinois, 33,786; Massachusetts, 21,963.

In the whole United States 357,516 persons paid income tax in 1915. Of these 114 have an annual income between $50,000 and $100,000 and 60 have incomes of more than $100,000. One man in the United States pays a tax of $2,500,000 on his income. This means he has an income in excess of $50,000,000 a year—more than $9000 a second. This man is believed to be John D. Rockefeller.

GERMAN OFFICIAL CABLEGRAMS

The following cablegram from official German sources was received today:

"German Headquarters, Feb. 3.—The enemy's artillery in Flanders is answering actively the German shelling of the enemy position on a large front. Northwest of Hulluch the Germans have occupied two craters blasted by the English in front of the German positions."

"In the Neuville district the enemy during the afternoon increased artillery fire strongly and here and on other sections, notably in the Argonnes, the artillery fire is active. FRANKFORT, Germany, Feb. 3.—Frankfurter Zeitung today comments significantly on the latest developments in the Lusitania situation. The Zeitung says that it cannot be ignored that the negotiations have taken an unsatisfactory form.

[Note:—This is a sudden change in the situation so far as the United States knows. Yesterday it was cabled from Berlin that there was hope for a "positive understanding" soon between America and Germany.]

BERLIN, Germany, Feb. 3.—The steamer Koenig Albert, flying an Italian flag and carrying 300 Serbian refugees, has been captured in the Adriatic Sea by an Austrian warship, according to a despatch to the Overseas News Agency.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Feb. 3.—The greatest crowd that has heard President Wilson on his present "preparedness tour" today broke into tremendous cheers when the nation's executive declared that America should have the greatest navy in the world.

Straight from the shoulder the president today struck for his national defense program, on behalf of which he planned this speech-making tour. His St. Louis address was made before a crowd that jammed the big hall to the last limit of capacity, while outside 30,000 more people, unable to get inside the doors, constituted a vast overflow gathering.

The cheering was tumultuous as the president drove home his points. He declared that the American navy, to safeguard the nation, should be the largest on any ocean. It should be unconquerable, he emphasized. He asserted that the submarines mostly have obeyed international law in their under-water campaigns, but added that the act of one commander might cause trouble against which the United States must be fully prepared.

Hundreds of Americans are at sea, he pointed out, and any one of the ships that carry Americans aboard may be the point of contact which will bring America into war. One belligerent, he continued, cut off from the world, has kept America from helping them as the country would like.

Appam Passengers Believe German Raiding Cruiser Roams Atlantic

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 3.—Is the powerful German armored cruiser Roon roaming the Atlantic on a career of destruction for vessels of the Allies?

This possibility is voiced by British subjects who have come ashore from the British steamer Appam, which was brought to Hampton Roads by a German prize crew. The Roon is said to be outside the ring of British patrolling warships which has hemmed in the Germans. It is said by those from the Appam that the Roon directed the operations of the scout cruiser Moewe, which sunk six British merchant vessels and captured the Appam off the Canary Islands last month.

Concerning the disposition of the Appam, Secretary of State Lansing said today that it is unquestioned that the status of the vessel is a prize of war, but that the disposition of it involves consideration of The Hague treaty and the Prussian treaty with the United States.

The Roon was built in 1903. It is of 9,050 tons and the latest lists show that it carries four 8-inch and 10 6-inch guns, with others of smaller calibre, and has a trial speed of better than 21 knots.

British Critics Think Germans Will Soon Launch New Offensive On West

LONDON, Eng., Feb. 3.—Military critics and observers writing in the newspapers express the conviction that the Germans are planning a great new offensive movement to cut through the Allies' line to the Channel ports. They say that the Germans are getting ready to launch a heavy attack on a large scale against the left wing of the Allies. It is expected that the Teutons will try to blast their way through the Allies' entrenchments to Calais and Dunkirk, with strong infantry forces and enormous masses of artillery supporting the blasting operations.

BERLIN, Germany, Feb. 3.—There is now notable artillery activity on the Franco-Belgian front, particularly in the vicinity of Neuville. The Germans have occupied two English mine craters near Hulluch.

Redmond Calls Irishmen to Colors

DUBLIN, Ireland, Feb. 3.—John Redmond, the Irish parliamentary leader, in a public address here today issued a stirring appeal for more recruits from Ireland.

LONDON, Eng., Feb. 3.—The British steamer Bell of France, last reported at Karachi, India, on December 24, has been sunk on the way to England. A number of Europeans and 220 Lascars have been landed and 19 Lascars are missing.

LONDON, Eng., Feb. 3.—It is officially announced that a British trawler has reported sighting a Zeppelin in the North Sea which was in a sinking condition.
